No. Fl. 7720—I. T. 28-46-8.

EXCESS PROFITS TAX (POST-WAR REFUNDS)
RULES, 1946.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 27 (2) (d) read with Section 4 (2) of the Mysore Excess Profits Tax Act, 1946, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, are pleased to make the following rules, the same having been previously published as required by sub-section (3) of Section 27:—

1. An application for refund of the Excess Profits Tax repayable under sub-section (2) of Section 4 of the Act shall be made in the form (Form E. P. 21) appended to these rules to the Excess Profits Tax Officer, not later than 31st March 1948, and that officer shall as soon as practicable refund the amount due under the Act, together with simple interest at 2 per cent per annum to the person who paid the tax;

Provided that,—

(i) in the case of an individual who, at the time when the amount is refundable, is dead, refund shall be made to the person, who under a letter of administration, probate or succession certificate is entitled thereto;

(ii) in the case of a company which, at the time when the amount is refundable, is in course of winding up, refund shall be made to the liquidator of the company;

(iii) in the case of a Hindu undivided family which, at the time when the amount is refundable, has been disrupted, the refund shall be made to the person or persons to whom the amount was assigned upon such disruption;

(iv) in the case of a firm, the constitution of which at the time when the amount is refundable, is different from the constitution during the chargeable accounting period in respect of which the amount was paid, refund shall be made to the firm as constituted when the refund is due and

(v) in the case of a firm which, at the time when the amount is refundable, is no longer in existence, refund shall be made jointly to the persons who were partners in the firm during the chargeable accounting period in respect of which the amount was paid, or to any person jointly nominated by them to receive the refund, with the substitution in the case of a deceased partner of the administrator or other legal representative.

Provided further that, if the identity of the person entitled under the preceding provisions to receive a refund is in dispute or if any substantial question of title is, in the opinion of the Excess Profits Tax Officer, involved, such officer may require production of an order of the competent Civil Court, naming the person entitled to receive the refund or any part thereof.

2. Any refund made in accordance with Rule 1 shall be deemed to be a full and valid discharge of the liability of the Government under the Act and the person to whom the refund is made shall be responsible for any liability arising out of a claim by any other person in respect of such refund.
